

Handcraft Arts

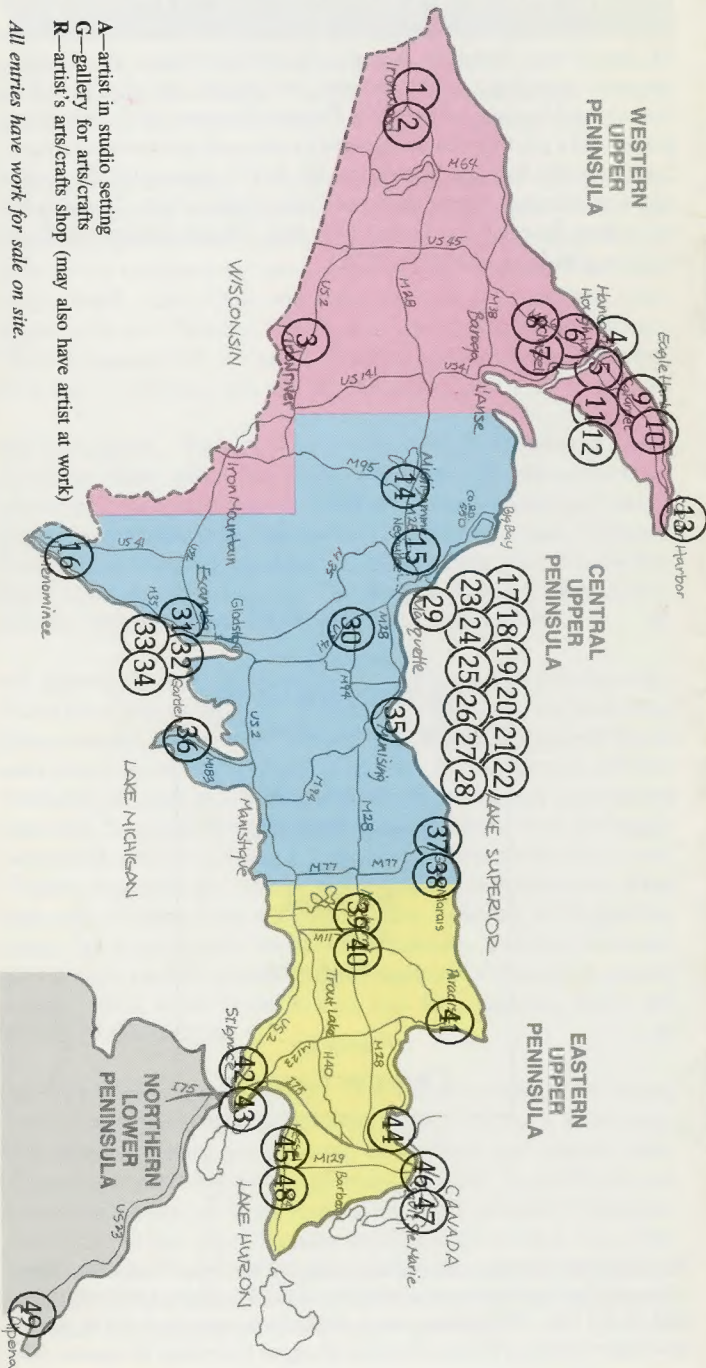

Of Michigan's Upper Peninsula 1990

WESTERN
UPPER PENINSULA

CENTRAL
UPPER PENINSULA

EASTERN
UPPER PENINSULA

A—artist in studio setting
G—gallery for arts/crafts
R—artist's arts/crafts shop (may also have artist at work)

All entries have work for sale on site.

WESTERN UPPER PENINSULA

1. Northwoods Woodwork. The new shop and outlet are located on Douglas B.R. just 3 blocks north on US-2. All materials are purchased from Michigan Timber Products. All wood is cut at our mill. We cut oak, maple, birch, and cherry. We feature custom furniture, cabinets and much more. Open Monday thru Saturday, 8am to 5pm, and Friday evenings until 8pm. Located at 600 Douglas, Ironwood, MI 49938; (906) 932-3063. A

2. Pine Tree Gallery. Established in 1973, the Pine Tree specializes in fine arts and crafts from the U.P., the entire Great Lakes region, Canada, and the far north. Original prints, paintings, drawings, ceramics, fibers, wood sculpture and turnings are featured. A wide selection of woodland Indian art and historic prints and maps are also available. Individual and group exhibitions are held throughout the year. Phil Kucera, 823 East Cloverland, US-2, Ironwood, MI 49938; (906) 932-5120. G

3. The Wood Den Toys and Crafts. Snuggled into the Ottawa National Forest, an authentic old homestead log cabin serves as an outlet for handcrafted quality gifts. Featuring unusual and original-design toys, as well as, selected folk toys made by proprietors Stan & Barb Thomas, the shop concentrates on crafts made in the beautiful U.P. Quality hand-loomed rugs, sheepskin items, pottery, tree-burl lamps, wood carvings, honey and maple syrup are all available. The backdrop of the forest and the charm of the log cabin create a tranquility that will make your visit memorable. From US-2, go 6 miles south on M-73 to Baumgartner Rd., 1 mile east to the Wood Den (6 miles southwest of Iron River); (906) 265-4446. R

4. Calico Cat. Local arts and crafts, featuring scads of cats, hand-painted decoys and wildlife. Visit our gallery of oil and watercolor paintings, quilts, wall hangings, hand woven baskets, and unique woodworkings. U.P. mugs and steins, art and ceramic supplies. Open week days noon to 4:30pm and 7pm to 9pm except Saturday and Sunday. Nicky Caspary, proprietor, 815 Shelden Ave, Houghton, MI 49931; (906) 482-6410. R

5. Shades of the Past. Shades of the Past is a working studio of a second generation goldsmith. Owner Karl Stubenville, designed all of the pendants and rings on display. Discover the finely crafted diamond jewelry. Customwork welcome. Also, featured is a large display of gold bracelets and chains. Open Monday thru Friday, 10am to 6pm and Saturday, 10am to 5pm. 1007 W. Memorial Dr. (M-26), Houghton, MI 49931; (906) 482-2765. A

6. The Windigo. An unusual gift shop featuring local artwork, Great Lakes shipping prints by artist Kurt R. Wolter, exquisite scrimshaw on datolite, etchings on float copper, pottery by Jim McAnallen, and more. Beautiful Art Nouveau and other styles of hand made jewelry, decorative accessories and Christmas ornaments. Our stock is always changing and intriguing, so stop in. Open all year round, Monday thru Saturday, 10am to 5pm. Celeste Wolter, owner, and Kurt Wolter, artist, 413 Sheldon Ave, Houghton, MI 49931; (906) 482-9700. A

7. The Copper Palette. Oil and watercolor paintings of local points of interest, animals, mines and loon prints and paintings, as well as notecards are available. A variety of handcrafted baskets and art supplies are also offered. Located just 3 miles north of Chassell and 1/4 miles west on Broemer Road. Look for the little blue and white barn. Carol Salo, owner, Rt 1 Box 184, Chassell, MI 49916; (906) 482-1373. R

8. The Einerlei Shop. A unique shop offering tasteful home furnishings, finely crafted gifts, and instruction in the traditional crafts. Regional crafts include hand thrown pottery, woodworkings, cutting boards, baskets weavings, and lovely dried flower wreathes; also, quilted pillows, placemats, handmade lampshades, fashionable jewelry and sweaters. The herb garden and greenhouse are a delight, as are the Christmas room, gourmet pantry, and interesting book selection. Open all year, regular hours. Ask for calendar of events and workshops. Send $1 for mail order lampshade catalog. Bill and Nancy Leonard, proprietors, Hwy. 41, Chassell, MI 49916; (906) 523-4612. R

9. The Copper Works. 35 years of industrial and art casting with lost wax and sand molds, result in a small foundry, set in the old Jacobsville sandstone "Swedish Church" (1895) in a legendary copper boomtown. Keweenaw copper alloys, pewter and aluminum form U.P. sculptures, and antique replacement parts. One of a kind and short run. Keweenaw gifts available. Open year-round 9am to 8pm. Dan & Sunday Gawura, 3907 S. 6th, Calumet, MI 49913; (906) 337-1614. A

10. Nana's Corner. See a wonderful selection of locally made crafts in a 100 year old sauna building. Featuring rag rugs, stationary, woodwork, and hand woven baskets by Colleen Eckloff, proprietor. We're 3 miles north of Ahmeek on the Five Mile Point Road (almost to the tip of the Keweenaw). Open mid-June thru September from 10am to 4 pm, closed Thursdays. Farmers Block North, Five Mile Point Road, Ahmeek, MI 49901; (906) 337-0863. R

11. Copperland Arts and Crafts. Located on M-26 near Houghton Co. Museum in Lake Linden. Stop in and visit our showroom and workshop which features a wide variety of copper sculptures that are carefully handcrafted and very unique. Watch as each sculpture is made from solid copper and protected with clear high-gloss lacquer.

The two creative artists, father and son, life-long residents of the Copper Country, have experience totaling 25 years. Open year-round Monday thru Saturday, 10am to 5pm. Price lists available upon request. Terry Gariepy, owner. Near Museum on M-26, Lake Linden, MI, 49945; (906) 296-9191. A

12. The Mitten Tree. Features fine handcrafted art works from over 50 local craftspersons, including afghans, sweaters, baby gifts, rag rugs, wooden toys, pillows, doll clothes, quilts, local history publications, a Christmas corner, and of course, a mitten tree full of handmade mittens of all sizes and colors. Open Monday thru Saturday 10am to 5pm and Sundays 1pm to 5pm June thru September. Visa/Mastercard accepted. "Beautiful and unique things for others and you." Peggy Barkell, owner, 5510 Highway M-26, Lake Linden, MI 49945; (906) 296-0600. R

13. Skytop Inn. Just 4 1/2 miles from Copper Harbor, located at the summit of Brockway Mountain Drive, a drive giving visitors a view of thousands of acres of undeveloped timberland, miles of Lake Superior, and nature's wildlife for the watchful. Built in the 1930's as a place to rest and observe nature, the Inn now also offers art and craftwork by Upper Peninsula artists. You will find books and stationery, textiles, baskets, copper work, photographs, jewelry, and much more, reflecting nature and history of the region. Lloyd Tucker Wescoat, owner, Brockway Mountain Drive, Copper Harbor, MI 49918; (906)289-4588. R

CENTRAL UPPER PENINSULA

14. A Stone's Throw. Representing over thirty regional artists and craftspeople in a traditional Scandinavian home near the lake in historic Michigamme. Watercolors, serigraphs, wood block prints, photography, and glass featured in separate gallery. Hand carved birds, pottery, rugs, local stone jewelry, baskets, Christmas items, dolls, cards, books, and kitchen shop. Open daily and Sunday, 10am to 5pm, from late June to the end of September. Bob and Mary Mercier, Box 40, Michigamme, MI 49861; (906)323-6356. R

15. The Depot. An art gallery and studio owned and operated by Marilyn Mutch. This renovated freight depot from the 1880's is listed as a state historic site and houses art work by some of Upper Michigan's finest artists, such as Maggie Linn, Paul Grant, and Nita Engle. The Depot also showcases the working studio of Marilyn Mutch, where she produces her stoneware goblets, mugs, bowls, casseroles, and other wheel-thrown pottery. At the corner of Gold and Rail St., in historic Negaunee. Open year-round, Monday to Saturday, 10am to 5pm, also by special appointment. 420 Rail Street, Negaunee, MI 49866; (906)475-4067. G

16. Germaine's Husflid. The shop features raw and decorated woodenware with Norwegian Rosemaling and folk art done in oils and acrylics. Germaine Vincent is primarily a Norwegian Rosemaler and she displays her work in this studio-shop. She loves doing original free-hand techniques on unusual wooden and tin items. Open Monday thru Saturday 10am to 5pm. Located 1-1/2 miles from the Menominee city limits, N1194 Hwy. M-35, Menominee, MI, 49858; (906)863-3890. A

17. Bittersweet Gifts & Everlastings. Located in the village at 424 North Third Street, Marquette. This unique shop is situated in an older home which lends charm and interest to the items featured. We invite you to share some time browsing over our distinctively designed floral wreaths, topiaries, baskets, fine furniture and many other enhancements for your home. We offer a selection of quality Upper Peninsula products. Open all year, Monday through Saturday, 10am to 5:30pm, and Friday evenings with extended summer hours. Owners Judy Tripp and Mary Beckstrom. Phone (906)228-5041. R

18. Cat's Eye Creations. We feature a wide variety of locally handcrafted items including paintings, woodcarvings, jewelry, wheat weavings, baskets, and clocks. We also collect and repair costume jewelry. Located in the Washington Street Mall. Sally Ahrndt, owner. 130 W. Washington St., Marquette, MI 49855; (906)225-0243. R

19. The Christine Garceau, Photography Studio. Located in Suite 230 of the Harlow Block Building, 102 West Washington Street, Marquette, Michigan. The studio features the photography of Christine Garceau, including hand-colored, black and white, still life, architecture, and portraits. The studio is open to the public from 1pm to 5pm, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. Appointments for portrait sittings and studio tours can be arranged by calling (906)225-0131, if no answer (906)228-4694. A

20. Engle-Nook. Located 5 miles south of Marquette in the old Beaver Grove school house. Newly expanded gallery includes originals, prints, and works in progress. Featuring original and prints by Nita Engle, Maggie Linn, plus the works of over 25 U.P. artists, craftspersons and photographers. Over 200 pieces of framed art, hundreds of gift items, supplies, water colors, ceramics, and calligraphy. Also knitted items, stained glass and photos - always something new. Open Tuesday - Sunday, (call for hours) Cindy Engle. 6385 U.S. 41 South, Marquette, MI 49855; (906)249-9977. R

21. Fairway Studios. Features original water color painting, limited edition hand tinted etchings, and beautiful photography that captures the stunning beauty of Michigan's great Upper Peninsula. All photography is matted and framed in quality materials. Our studio is located behind the north fairway of the Marquette Golf and Country Club.

Verna Depro and Randy Surfass, proprietors. Visit by appointment only. #3 Fairway Dr., Marquette, MI 49855; (906) 226-7172. A

22. Michigan Fair. Located in restored, historic Downtown Marquette. We are a large gift shop filled with Michigan's finest gifts and gourmet. Special features include stoneware, candles, native gems and minerals, jewelry, prints, baskets, and books. We also supply tourist information. Gift wrap, UPS, special orders. Leslie White, owner. 114 W. Washington, Marquette, MI 49855; (906)226-3894. R

23. Presque Isle Station. Located in Marquette, on Lake Superior, at the entrance to Scenic Presque Isle Park, this 1800's train station has been recently renovated into an art gallery and studio. Featured are pottery and ceramic tile pieces by Michael Horton and Terry Gilfoy, proprietors. Also on display are original works by local area artists. 2901 Lakeshore Blvd., Marquette, MI 49855; (906)225-1695. G

24. Sno-Haven Pottery. Featuring Whitestone Ware, Porcelain Wheel Thrown, and Artistic Handbuilt forms. Beautiful examples of sgraffito inlay and underglazing on high fired ware. Artist combines strengths in sculpture, drawing, and painting in the medium of clay. Rich color and purity is reflected in porcelain glazed work. Lyman S. Walker, proprietor. Open by appointment only. Located at 505 Co. Rd. 480, Marquette, MI 49855; (906)249-3742. A

25. Superior View Gallery and Museum. Located in the historic district of downtown Marquette, the museum features antique photographs of the Upper Peninsula, cameras, and old time portraits available. The gallery features the works of over 40 local artists in photography, pottery, drawings, paintings, glass, fiber and wood. Jack Deo, owner. In Donckers Building, 137-1/2 W. Washington St., Marquette, MI 49855; (906)225-1952. G

26. Stained Glass Creations. This shop offers finished products and stained glass supplies. Restoration and commission work is done also. Lessons are given and visitors may watch and ask questions. Open 10am to 4pm, Monday thru Friday, otherwise by appointment. Erna Roever, owner. 500 N. Third Street, Marquette, MI 49855; (906)228-3232. A

27. The Antique Village - Located three miles south of Marquette on U.S. 41 South in Harvey, features over 300 sq. ft. of antiques, crafts and gift items. Antique items offered focus primarily on articles indigenous to the U.P. The Antique Village has a fine selection of work from U.P. artisans, including folk art, baskets, dolls, scrimshaw, pastel portraits & wreaths made from locally grown flowers. A nice variety of gift items are also available, including Mt. St. Helen glass, imports, and items for the discriminating palate, such as Michigan jams and butters. Visitors will enjoy shopping our new Christmas rooms for unique Victorian and country items, all in keeping with the past. Heidi

and Sylvia Carter, proprietors. Open May 1 thru Dec. 24, Monday thru Saturday, 10am to 6pm and Sunday, noon to 5pm. Located at 2296 U.S. 41 South, Marquette, MI 49855; (906)249-3040. R

28. The Market Place. The Upper Peninsula's most talented artists and craftspeople sell their wide variety of handcrafted gifts and home decor here. Special orders are welcome to personalize your purchase. Mastercard/Visa accepted. Shipping Available. Open Summer thru Christmas, 9am to 5pm, Monday thru Saturday and Sunday noon to 4pm. Winter hours are 10am to 5pm Monday thru Saturday, and closed Sunday. Jodi Paquette, Mgr. Located at 500 Ludington Street, Escanaba, MI 49829; (906)789-1326. R

29. Westwood Antique and Gifts. Located in the Days Inn. Handcrafted items by Upper Peninsula craftspersons. Pottery, dolls, sweaters, baskets, wooden items, candles, books of U.P. history, stationery of nature, and handmade soaps & potpourris. Come in and browse our unique antique shop. Open 7 days - 7am to 11pm year-round. US-41, West Marquette, MI 49855; (906)225-1393. R

30. John Heath Studio. Specializing in oil paintings of local Upper Peninsula scenes in the different seasons, including Lake Superior, historic buildings, old barns, landscapes, and wildlife. Painting in oils since the age of eight in 1936, John Heath received many years of art training and has been awarded many honors. The gallery also shows countless color washed pen and ink drawings of birds, other animals, and scenes. 15 miles south of Marquette, a short distance from US-41, at 161 Kreiger Dr, Skandia, MI 49885; (906)942-7355. A

31. East Ludington Gallery. An old brownstone in downtown Escanaba houses the East Ludington Gallery, an association of 25 area artists and craftspersons who have been presenting quality work for nine years. Browse and purchase from a myriad of fine art and crafts. The gallery features paintings, pottery, fiber art, photography, baskets, weaving, jewelry, stained glass, calligraphy, cards, quilts, metalwork, scrimshaw, and prints. Open year round, Monday thru Saturday from 10am to 5:30 pm. 619 Ludington Street, Escanaba, MI 49829; (906)786-0300. G

32. Heart and Home. We feature original works from Upper Peninsula artists and craftpersons. Located in beautiful downtown Escanaba. All traditional crafts plus many unique works. Newest and largest shop in area. Verna Brandt, proprietor. 1323 #2 Ludington St., Escanaba, MI 49829; (906) 786-1299. R

33. Kreative Krafts. We feature top quality handmade crafts and gifts from local U.P. crafters. Choose from a constantly changing inventory specializing in ceramics, woodcraft, knit & crochet wear, cross stitch, dolls, soft sculpture, applique hoops, sweatshirts, pillows, baskets and floral arrangements. Special orders are welcome. Hours: 10am to 5 pm, Monday thru Saturday. Open year round. Regina S. Berg. 1626 Ludington Street, Escanaba, MI 49829; (906)786-1827. R

34. William Bonifas Fine Arts Center. Located at 7th Street and 1st Ave. South, near Escanaba's downtown. The gallery is open Monday thru Friday from 12 to 4pm; Sunday 12 to 4pm. The gallery features a continuing program of art classes, workshops, exhibits, plays, and other special events. Business office is open 9am to 5pm, Monday thru Friday. For information and possible time changes, call (906)786-3833. G

35. Alger Area Arts Center. An arts center featuring prints, paintings, ceramics, country items, wooden toys, folk art, unique childrens clothing, and more. Products made by Alger area artists and craftspersons for viewing and sale. Demonstrations and information available through AAAC information services. Open Tuesday thru Saturday, May thru August, 10am to 6pm, and September thru December, 10am to 5pm. 124 E. Superior, Munising, MI 49862; (906)387-4807. G

36. Village Artisans - Garden Gallery. Located on M-183, 9 miles south of US -2, on the way to Fayette State Historic Park. The gallery features an ever-changing selection of original work by more than 50 area artists and craftpersons. Works include oil and watercolor paintings, photography, jewelry, woodworking, pottery, handblown glass, needlework and baskets. Margo House, President. Open daily 10am to 5pm. Memorial Day thru Labor Day and Sundays, noon to 5pm. Garden, MI 49835; (906)644-2025. G

37. Creative Enterprises. The studio of Bob Weston, scenic photographer, and Nancy Weston, creative artist in watercolor, pen and ink, and printmaking. Custom hand crafted hardwood frames are made to order for photographs, artwork, or other items. Color coordinated mats are custom cut. Selected products on display for sale, and projects under construction may be seen by visitors in the studio-gallery surrounded by a forest setting. 3 miles south of Grand Marais, or 22 miles north of Seney, on M-77. P.O. Box 404, Grand Marais, MI 49839; (906)494-2744. A

38. The Market Place of Grand Marais. This showroom of Grand Marais Cottage Industries, a cooperative of local artists and craftspersons, is located in the historic Post Office building. Original hand-crafted woodworking, oils, water colors, photographs, wreaths, baskets, hand knits, infant/children's clothing, note cards, dolls, custom framing, stained glass, country primitives, needlecraft, and quilted articles. Summer hours, 10am to 8pm daily; others by appt. Catalog available. Custom orders welcome. Box 374, Grand Marais, MI 49839; (906)494-2567. R

EASTERN UPPER PENINSULA

39. Country Gallery. Located in the historic logging village of Newberry, the gallery features locally produced handcrafts as well as many unique items and gifts. Items include dried and fresh floral, quilts, rugs, country furniture, antiques, dolls, baskets, and much more. Open Monday thru Friday, 8:30am to 6pm. Also open Saturdays from 9:30am to 5:30pm and Sundays from 11:30pm to 4:30am (summers only). 607 Newberry Ave., Newberry, MI 49868; (906) 293-8262. R

40. The Osprey Nest Country Crafts & Gifts. Located in the Helmer House Inn, in Helmer. A registered Michigan historic site, the Inn was built in 1881 as a mission house for early settlers and later converted into a general store, post office and resort hotel. The original shelving features paintings, wooden bowls, baskets, stained glass, pottery, jewelry, dolls, quilts and weavings crafted by Upper Peninsula artisans. A selection of spinning and weaving equipment and yarns available. Open May thru October, noon to 8pm; closed Tuesday. Arlone Vernon, P.O. Box 213, Newberry, MI 49868; (906)586-3475. R

41. Ye Olde Browse Shoppe. Housed in the original Whitefish Point school building, the Browse Shoppe carries a full line of antiques and collectibles, plus a line of quality gifts. Authentic replicas of antique shore bird decoys, carved on site by proprietor Wayne Holbrook, are featured, along with pottery and wildlife paintings by Upper Peninsula Artists. PO Box 53, Paradise, MI 49768; (906)492-3460. R

42. North Country Trading Post. Located at exit 373, halfway between Sault Ste. Marie and St. Ignace. Unique Upper Peninsula handmade items and local maple syrup, candy, and honey. Hand spun wool items, weaving, baskets, country wood, quilts, crochet, ceramic, toys, hand carved ducks and birds, and special Christmas ornaments, also hand dipped ice cream cones, pop, and sandwiches. Silvia Freeman and Faye Stevens, proprietors. Open Memorial weekend thru October 31st from 10am to 9pm daily. Rt. 1 Box 467 E, Rudyard, MI 49780; (906) 478-4148. R

43. Ojibwa Museum Gift Shop. The Ojibwa Museum Gift Shop at Marquette Mission Park and Museum of Ojibwa Culture features traditional Great Lakes Native American Crafts, including quill and antler jewelry, bead work, and quilled bush boxes. We are located at the traditional site of Father Jacques Marquette's final burial, at the north end of downtown St. Ignace. Summer hours, Memorial Day thru Labor Day, seven days a week, 11am to 9pm; reduced hours September 4 thru October 15. 500 North State Street, St. Ignace, MI 49781; (906)643-9161. R

44. Grace's Birch Point Studio. Located at Birch Point on beautiful Brimley Bay west of Sault Ste. Marie. Grace paints mostly in water-color and specializes in flowers and nature. She also paints some acrylics, silk, batiks and silk scarves which can be seen at Alberta House in Sault Ste. Marie. Call for Studio appointment. Grace Dubow, Rt. 2, Box 163, Brimley, MI 49715; (906)248-6603. A

45. Northwind Pottery. We dig local earthenware clay from the "Clay Country" of the Eastern U.P. Shaped on the potter's wheel and hard-fired, our forms and colors reflect the elements of nature around us as we try to express the poetry of the Upper Peninsula. Functional mugs, bowls, vases, bells, and dinnerware are produced here year-round in the Les Cheneaux Islands on M-134, 2 miles west of Hessel. Visit by appointment or chance. Gordon and Annegret Goehring, P.O. Box 271, Hessel, MI 49745; (906)484-2234. A

46. La Galerie. The pink Victorian house at 1420 Ashmun Street, Sault Ste. Marie, offers select antique furniture and collectibles complimented by a representation of folk art, pottery, paintings, baskets, photos and a variety of handmades produced by Upper Peninsula artists. Open Monday thru Saturday, 10am to 5pm, May thru December; Wednesday thru Saturday, January thru April. Colleen Arbic, Carolyn Person, Sandra Poffenbarger; (906)635-1044. R

47. Alberta House Gallery and Shop. The Sault Area Arts Council's Olive M. Craig Gallery and its sales shop are located in the Alberta House, an old railroad hotel. The gallery features changing exhibits of area artists, presenting a variety of media. In the shop you will find limited production, one-of-kind crafts in all media, plus graphics and paintings by artists and craftsmen, many of whom were previously associated with Olive Craig's Woodland Workshop on Birch Point. Visitors may have free calenders of cultural events, brochures about area cultural attractions, and publications, including MCA publications. Open year-round, Tuesday thru Saturday. Summer, 10am to 5 pm; Winter, noon to 5pm. 217 Ferris St., south of Portage St. and the Locks. Write to the SAAC at P.O. Box 857, Sault Ste. Marie, MI 49783; (906)635-1312. G

48. The Woodshed Gift Shop. In a Victorian setting, we feature locally handcrafted baskets, paintings, pottery, carvings, quilts, rugs, and more. Upstairs are antiques, collectibles, and stained glass. Classes and basket and craft supplies are available. Located in the Les Cheneaux Islands, 1/2 block south of the M-134 and M-129 intersection in Cedarville. Open Monday thru Saturday, 10am to 5pm, May thru December; Friday and Saturday January thru April, or by appointment. (906)484-3762. Elda Nye, Norine Rudd, Jeri Griffin. Box 88, Meridian St., Cedarville, MI 49719; (906)484-3002. R

NORTHERN LOWER PENINSULA

49. Jesse Besser Museum, Alpena. An accredited museum with continuously changing exhibits, lectures, workshops, and classes in Art, History, and Science. Also a Sky Theatre Planetarium (Sunday Programs) and a gift shop featuring items by area craftspersons and artists. Located at 491 Johnson St., Alpena, MI 49707. East of US-23. Open Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday 10am to 5pm; Thursday 10 am to 9pm; Saturday and Sunday 12 to 5pm. Closed national holidays. Call for schedules, (517)356-2202. G

Cover Art

Courtesy of:
Superior View Gallery
Marquette, MI 49855

Wood Vessel by
Frank Siminski
Ceramics by
Ed Risak
Quilt by Sue Hubbard

Photo by:
Christine Garceau

This directory has been published annually by the Upper Peninsula Crafts Council. (For information write UPCC, c/o Box 271, Hessel, MI 49745; (906) 484-2234.) This 1990 edition was published with help from the Northern Economic Initiatives Center, Northern Michigan University, Marquette, MI.